DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: Fig. 6, Items 735 and 752; Fig. 4, Items 731, 741, and 743. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

Claims 14 and 16 are objected to because of the following informalities: both claims state, "...wherein said the..." Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 6 and 11-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 6 recites the limitation "the second motor", "the second rotation axes",... etc. in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations and a variety of others in the claim.

Claim 11 contains more than one sentence. Claims must only be one sentence. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless – (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 7, 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nishimura (US Patent No. 6,286,525).

Nishimura discloses a supporting base and driving device (Fig. 1), a rotation module having multiple wash heads (Fig. 1) and the bottom of the wash head is in contact with a wafer and the rotation module is drive and the wash-heads self rotate (see entire document). Nishimura also discloses a fluid pipe for the distribution of water (chemical) in the rotation module (Fig. 11A, Item 20).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nishimura in view of Goss (US Patent No. 5,345,640).

Nishimura discloses the apparatus shown above in the 102(b) rejection. Nishimura does not specifically disclose the multiple wash-heads driven by gears. Goss discloses multiple wash-heads driven by gears. At the time of the invention, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Nishimura with Goss for the benefit of reducing the number of drive units.

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nishimura.

Nishimura discloses the apparatus shown above in the 102(b) rejection, however, does not disclose the use of nitrogen. The use of nitrogen is common in wafer treatment and one of ordinary skill would readily foresee using nitrogen. This is also considered as the intended use of the apparatus and “[A]pparatus claims cover what a device is, not what a device does.” Hewlett-Packard Co. v. Bausch & Lomb Inc., 909 F.2d 1464, 1469, 15 USPQ2d 1525, 1528 (Fed. Cir. 1990) (emphasis in original).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 11 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Claims 12-18 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art does not disclose the couple of first rotation axes, second rotation axes, first, second, third and fourth transmission belts, first and second motors, the first rotation axes rotating the rotation module and the second rotation axes controlling the wash-heads.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art not referred to are Middendorf (US 20030000550), Yeo (US 20030115698), Marcus (US 2480489), Yonemizu (US 5636401), Perlov (US 5804507), Ueki (US 6330728), Sato (US 6381796), Teeny (US 6418584), Crevasse (US 6423149), Hirose (US RE38228), Hiramatsu (JP 20000013008), Kamiya (JP 56015974), and Hatano (WO 8203040), who disclose multiple wash heads or brush mechanisms.
